Reader's Choice – Best Public Golf Course '25 – Seven Daysies

At Cedar Knoll Country Club, the membership is more than just great golf: It's about belonging to a community that emphasizes fun, friends, and exceptional golf all summer long. Our distinctive 27-hole course is the setting that brings people together but it's the conditions and relationships formed here that keep members coming back. Whether you arrive knowing everyone or no one at all, Cedar Knoll has a way of making you feel part of something special.

I was a member at Cedar Knoll in the nineties, and after a 25-year layoff (from golfing) I've rejoined the club. The members and staff have been great. The fall Quota league was a good way to meet other members... I'm glad to be back at the Knoll.

Bob Payson

From casual rounds to organized events and traditions, we boast countless opportunities to connect. For after-work decompression, we host a plethora of casual leagues for a variety of players. Whether you are interested in the organized leagues, or just the weekend pickup matches, you'll be welcomed by all!

To keep things fresh for our loyal members and welcoming for newcomers, we constantly evaluate and update our event schedule. This year, we are introducing a new tournament in May that mixes players of all skill levels like never before.

We're new to golf, but playing at CKCC feels like home. The course is not only beautiful, but meticulously maintained... (we) feel our home course outshines anywhere else we've played. The staff is the best!!! Thank you to everyone who has made us feel so welcome!

JoAnn Wolter

Of course, great golf is what matters most! Keeping the entire property in pristine condition is a top priority. Our expansive 27-hole layout, the largest in northern Vermont, also includes scenic practice facilities that make it easy to improve your game. The course design provides the opportunity to hit every club in your bag.

Cedar Knoll has it all! The course is exceptional (and keeps getting better), the practice area helps us work on our game, and the patio cannot be beat. But most of all, Cedar Knoll is the perfect place to spend time outdoors with friends and family. That's what keeps us coming back each year.
